SANTA FE'S CRACK TRAIN, CALIFORNIA LIMITED, DITCHED AT KINGMAN, ARIZ.

(By Evening Herald Special Wire.) Los Angeles, Sept. 20.—A crack train, possibly 1900, persons were killed and at least eight were injured today in the wrecking of the west-bound California Limited, one mile east of Kingman, Ariz., according to a report from Santa Fe headquarters here.

Engineer R. W. Graham, who killed and burned A. A. Osborn of Needles, Cal., was missing and reported as probably killed. Four of five passengers, two cooks and two waiters were injured.

The limited, running on time, was derailed at 1:15 p. m. The engine, dining car and one sleeping car left the track. The cause of the derailment has not been determined.

Doctors and nurses were sent from Kingman and Needles. A wrecking outfit started the track this morning ready for the train to continue on its way to Los Angeles.

The limited left Chicago at 8:05 p. m. Sunday. The most seriously injured passenger was Mrs. George Overmyer of Topeka, Kans. Bones in her left arm were fractured. Others injured were burned and cut when the sleeping car fell on its side. Passengers were taken out through the windows.

The engineer and fireman were killed when the engine rolled over several times down a small embankment.
